LEADERSHIP

Leadership is learning. When I started this adventure, I had some ideas of what I would like to see happen. I did think that planning would be the way to accomplish those ideals. I was wrong. It goes without saying that the President is really nothing. So much of what goes on is the efforts of others. Yet, one likes to think that your thoughts and ideas have some impact.

As I reflect on the upcoming Thanksgiving season, it makes me think how incredibly grateful I am to all of you. You have given me a great gift this year. This year has taught me so very much. I appreciate every bit of attention you have given me and my ideas over these many years.

I wish for you, in this upcoming holiday season, joy and peace. I hope you take advantage of this precious time to be with those who matter most.

Annette Hovorka
President, CLSA
